John T. Flynn, MD, a nationally recognized leader in pediatric ophthalmology, is a retired former Vice Chairman of the Department of Pediatric Ophthalmology and Chief of the Division of Pediatric Ophthalmology. He is also the first Anne S. Cohen Professor, and recipient a Marshall M. Parks Medal from the foundation of American Association for Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus.

Dr. Flynn is a magna cum laude graduate of Notre Dame University and received his medical degree from Northwestern University Medical School. In 1965, he joined the faculty of the University of Miami School of Medicine, where he became Professor of Ophthalmology in 1980. During that time, Dr. Flynn held appointments at Miami’s Anne Bates Leach Eye Hospital and Jackson Memorial Hospital and at the Bascom Palmer Eye Institute/Anne Bates Leach Eye Hospital’s Ophthalmology Research Foundation, where he was also a member of the Medical Board. Dr. Flynn retired in 2015.
